JOURNAL OF MALAYSIAN AND COMPARATIVE LAW

The Journal of Malaysian and Comparative Law (JMCL) is a journal of the Faculty of Law, University of Malaya. It began publication in 1974 with two issues a year, in June and December. Since then, it has been published annually in either one or two issues, depending on the number of contributions submitted each year. The journal accepts and publishes contributions from scholars all over the world. Its articles in both English and Bahasa Malaysia reflect its dual character as a Malaysian and Comparative Law journal. Its subject matter and contents, wide-ranging in character, also reflect a bias towards the Malaysian law. It is priced at RM30 per copy. It is published and distributed by the Department of Publications, University of Malaya, 50603 Kuala Lumpur.

SURVEY OF MALAYSIAN LAW

The Survey of Malaysian Law began publication in 1977. It is another annual publication of the Faculty of Law, University of Malaya. It contains reviews of the developments in the law in the year of survey. The chapters are divided into different areas of the law and contains comments on the legislation and cases decided in each area. One of the chapters sets out the legal publications in the year of survey. Contributors of the chapters tend to be mainly from the members of the Faculty of Law, University of Malaya. The Survey of Malaysian Law is also published and distributed by the Department of Publications, University of Malaya, 50603 Kuala Lumpur. It is priced at RM110 per copy.
